Golden Goddess

Protected by U. S. Plant Patent No. 77

We wish to announce to our customers that we are one of the few dealers selected by Mr. Carl Salbach, originator and patentee of Golden Goddess, to list this sterling novelty this year. This variety is offered at retail only and no stock can be sold except by express permission of Mr. Salbach.

Golden Goddess is without doubt the finest yellow variety ever offered. It has a deep rich color and fine substance. Stalks are tall and blossoms well placed. Under usual conditions it opens 8 to 10 blooms but has been reported with 16 open with 8 buds to come.

Large bulbs only are offered this season. Price is one-half that of last year—

$2.50 per Bulb

Pacific Chief (Piper)

Only three bulbs of this most wonderful Glad were sold last season, the balance of the stock is intact. It is soft dark rose pink with a slight tinge of blue, almost a self color, a good strong spike carrying 10 to 14 six-inch blooms open at a time, florets well placed. Only a few bulbs for sale this season, and no bulblets.

Medium $15.00, Small $10.00

Katanga Blue (Piper)

This is possibly the bluest of the so-called blue glads. About as dark as Konynenburg but more blue with darker pencil marks in throat, five open blooms of good size, and well placed on a good spike.

Large $5.00, Medium $2.50
